Italian Ruscus

We sustainably produce beautiful stems of deep green foliage.

We apply fair trade principles to develop long-term relationships with customers, collaborators and the environment.

The climate of Chilean Patagonia and the purity of the water are ideal for Ruscus production from March to September, at counter season to the northern hemisphere.

Farm “Los Chilcos”
4 out of 8 hectares of
Italian Ruscus
1000 km from Capital
City, Santiago.

We have production and process capacity in the same facility
